

Just few days back I was wondering how good it will be if I could turn the time back, like I could get the chance to stop myself to enter that stupid black hole of depression, I wish stop myself to stop me to met that person who came into my life as a tycoon, I still don't know how to describe the comparison between both the feelings how it felt when he made me his everything and how I hurts when he left me with nothing.

He used to say why you never agree that you love me or even like me, even I can see through you that how much you are into me. I wanted to answer him but decided not to because I knew if, I did I might get hurt to the point it became so hard for me to control and no manifestation can do anything to resolve that.

I vividly remember our first call as well as our last. They month we decide to follow each other paths after 3 years exact same time we decide to choose the different paths.

His last text to me was I AM SORRY, I MISS YOU. But deep inside I had a feeling that none of them is true, he is just couldn't be able to accept that m leaving him. I decide to no-longer wait for him.
